AMUSEMENTS

SWEET GIRL AT BUTLER THEATRE TONIGHT

If you liked Mary Miles Minter in "Anne of Green Gables," you will love her in "Judy of Rogue's Harbor," which will be the offering at the Butler tonight. It is a story full of human interest that will pull at your heart-strings, that will make you sigh and sob, laugh and cry; it is her latest photo-drama. It has just released upon the market. It is brand new. For a thriller you will long remember. See this sweet blossom of humanity. There is a treat in store for you—tears, sighs, sobs, smiles, chuckles, laughter and everything. In this production, Miss Minter is afforded every opportunity to display her gifted ability and matured artistry in this well known story, adopted from Grace Miller White's book. The athletic young star enters into the tense scenes and exciting situations with all the vim, vigor, verve and vivacity of her girlhood. She is at home in many scenes calling upon her physical powers and histrionic ability. No expense has been spared to perfect every detail to produce a photoplay that will be hugely enjoyed, so do not miss it.

Added to the feature will be a Ford Weekly and a Mutt & Jeff comedy. Tomorrow, Douglas Fairbanks, in "His Majesty, the American," his first picture with his own company, under the banner of the United Artists Corporation. There is a fine picture, scheduled for every day this week. You can't go wrong by seeing them all.

Location books in triplicate now ready at The Bonanza office.
